THE PORTRAITS OF SHAKESPEARE

BY

J. PARKER NORRIS.

The undersigned proposes to publish, by subscription, a limited edition of this work in small quarto form, handsomely printed from old style type, on fine laid paper (see size, type and paper of this Prospectus), and will be illustrated by twenty of the very best obtainable phototype reproductions from the finest engravings of the various portraits and monuments of the great poet, selected from Mr. Norris' fine collection of engraved portraits of Shakespeare, and also by about twelve engravings on wood.

Thirty-one portraits and monuments of Shakespeare will be fully and carefully described, and all that is known concerning them will be collected in this volume; and much new matter, not heretofore printed in book form, will be given.

Mr. Norris has devoted years to the study of Shakespeare's portraits, and this work, it is confidently asserted, will be by far the most complete that has ever been published on this very interesting subject. The works of Boaden (1824), Wivell (1827) and Friswell (1864) have long been unobtainable, and it is believed that the present one will be welcomed by many.

The edition will be limited to 500 copies, small 4to. Price, $10.

Subscribers' names will be registered, and copies will be assigned in order as names are received.
